

Competition over protectionism. Any FCC or politician voting to restrict XM radio's rights to broadcast whatever they want will be put on my "never vote for" list, and I will actively and vociferously campaign against such small minded thinking until it is disintegrated.